MOTION TO REVOKE BOND

COMES NOW the State of Georgia, by and through the District Attorney for the Blue Ridge Judicial Circuit, and moves this Honorable Court to revoke the Defendant's bond on the above-named charges. In support thereof, the State shows as follows:

1. The Defendant has been indicted for three counts of child molestation and is awaiting trial.
2. The Defendant was granted a bond on May 29, 2019.
3. As a condition of said bond, the Defendant is to have no contact with any minor children under the age of eighteen (18).
4. Between February and October of 2021, the Defendant has had repeated contact with four minor females who reside in his apartment complex, including acting in a babysitting capacity with no other adults present. The minor females are ages six (6), eight (8), ten (10) and eleven (11).
5. Such contact can be confirmed by the parents of said children, [REDACTED], who were unaware of the pending charges against Mr. Devault or the bond conditions forbidding his contact with minors.

WHEREFORE, the State of Georgia moves that the bond of the Defendant be REVOKED based upon his violation of the conditions set forth by the Court and requests that a hearing be set as soon as possible in the interest of public safety.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of Nov., 2021.

Katie M. Gropper
Deputy Chief Assistant District Attorney
Blue Ridge Judicial Circuit
