Ticket Message:

Hello David,

The Board entrusts professional accountants with the responsibility of managing our financial records, and we engage an external accounting firm for an annual audit. Should these accounting experts discover any indications warranting a forensic audit, the Board would certainly consider its implementation.

We would like to emphasize that allegations previously raised on bigcanoematters.org have undergone thorough investigations, including as recently as the first quarter of this year, and have been consistently determined to lack merit. We remain committed to the ongoing collection of pertinent information, expert review, and a steadfast commitment to safeguarding the association's assets.

Sincerely,

Tim Moran
President
Big Canoe POA Board of Directors

Thanks and Regards,

Ask the POA
